

Tennessee Safety Culture Summit 2018

Tennessee's Department of Children's Services is partnering with Vanderbilt University's Center of Excellence for Children in State Custody, Chapin Hall Center for Children at the University of Chicago and Casey Family Programs to host a Safety Culture summit. The 1.5 day summit brings together jurisdictions interested in learning and applying strategies, tools, and tactics that promote safe, reliable, and effective care. Day one provides a mix of speakers and presentations. Day two will be a facilitated work session to plan a multi-jurisdiction Quality Improvement Collaborative (QIC) focused on improving team culture.
